

Rossitsa GRADEVA

*Associate Professor of History,
American University in Bulgaria,
Institute of Balkan Studies with Centre of Thracian Studies, Sofia*

Her research interests are mainly in the field of Ottoman institutions of provincial administration, application of Islamic law in the Ottoman Empire, various aspects of the status of non-Muslim communities and everyday life in the Ottoman provinces, the Ottoman Danube frontier and the development of the decentralization processes in the region in the pre-Tanzimat period.

Her interests include also Ottoman-Bulgarian relations in the post-1878 period, and the history of the Ottoman Commissariat in Sofia. She is the author of Rumeli under the Ottomans 15th-18th Centuries: Institutions and Communities. Analecta Isisiana LXXVI (Istanbul: the Isis Press, 2004) ; War and Peace in Rumeli 15th to beginning of 19th century. Analecta Isisiana C (Istanbul: the Isis Press, 2008).

Jeudi 13 mars 2014, 14h-17h

The role of waqf in the social and economic texture of a Balkan city: Sofia, 15th-18th centuries dans le cadre du séminaire de Randi Deguilhem (CNRS, TELEMME-MSH), « Economie islamique et waqf-habous : de la théorie aux pratiques »

IISMM, salle des étudiants (1er étage), EHESS, 96 bd Raspail 75006 Paris

Mercredi 19 mars 2014, 16h-18h

Territorial parameters of confessional relations/divisions in Ottoman cities, 15th-19th centuries dans le cadre du séminaire de Bernard Heyberger (IISMM), « Anthropologie historique des chrétiens en Islam »

IISMM, salle de réunion (1er étage), EHESS, 96 boulevard Raspail 75006 Paris

Mercredi 26 mars 2014, 16h-18h

Conversion and neo-martyrdom in the complex relations of the Ottoman authority and its non-Muslim subjects (in the Balkans) dans le cadre du séminaire de Bernard Heyberger, « Anthropologie historique des chrétiens en Islam »

IISMM, salle de réunion (1er étage), EHESS, 96 boulevard Raspail 75006 Paris

Lundi 7 avril 2014, 17h-19h

“Earlier Turks abducted Bulgarian girls and ‘Turkicised’ them. Why should not we now take a Turkish woman?” : women as ‘our (holy) territory’ in late Ottoman and early post-Ottoman Balkan space dans le cadre du séminaire de Xavier Bougarel (CETOBAC), Nathalie Clayer (CETOBAC) et Bernard Lory (INaLCO), « Les enjeux de la terre, du territoire et de l'espace dans le Sud-Est européen »

EHESS, salle 2, RdC, Le France, 190-198 av de France 75013 Paris